Can I just remind all parents and children that children are not allowed to wear any jewellery for school- this is a whole school policy. Also can you please send in a full change of clothing in case of any accidents. Can all children bring a pair of wellies with their name inside and keep them in school.

Please come and see Miss Coates if you have any questions regarding anything concerning nursery.

Class 5 birthdays:

Happy birthday to:

Nursery is a very important time for children and we are taking part in many exciting things in class to excel early learning. This includes nursery rhyme singing, number and shape exploration, letter and sound recognition and learning through play. If you would like any more information about this please speak to Miss Coates.
